A CONTRIBUTION TO THE HISTORY OF DEPORTATIONS AND FORCED LABOR. A DOCUMENT In the following lines can be read the translation from the original text of an order for work which was given out in Germany in December 1916, that is, at the time when the deported Belgians were arriving en masse in the camps of the enemy: stellv. General Kommando II Bayer. A. K. By virtue of the 42d article of the law on the state of war, the Stellv. General Kommando II Bayer A. K. ordains the following in the interest of public order: 1. It is forbidden for the civilians of countries at war with Germany to refuse labor which is legally imposed upon them, unless they are able to prove by certificates given to them by the local police that they have sufficient reasons for abstaining from this work. 2. Civilians belonging to countries at war with Germany who do not conform to this order will be condemned to prison for one year, if the law does not provide...
