The sea appeared to break and completely smother the boat; and some seconds she would entirely disappear, when the cry would arise that she was lost; she would then appear again almost perpendicular. After remaining some time in this perilous position, she drew off from the wreck, and we saw that she had lost several of her oars, and, at the same time, we thought some of her men. Joining the whale-boat, both returned to the Lady Bird. What the feelings of those on the wreck must have been we can only conjecture; on shore we thought their last chance was gone, for few of us thought they would hold out another night, or that the weather would joe more propitious on the morrow. The scene was now gloomy beyond description--every eye on shore that had watched this attempt to save them was moist, and every J. P. Johnstone s statement. LYON AND POWER DESCRIBE FROM SHORE. 5 heart, I think, must have ached as the oar caught the scream that came from the wreck when the boat was leaving; it appeared to us a wild farewell wrung from them in despair as their last hope appeared gone. But few, I think, who witnessed this fearful scene will ever forget it. Tn a few hours...
