It was here that the priests sometimes delivered their sacred addresses, here the prophets sometimes proclaimed their predictions. It was here that ordinances were sometimes promulgated, and the law read; hence it came to signify a place for the worship and service of God, as where the Psalmist calls upon all to enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise. Zion, too, being used at first to denote a hill, sometimes called a holy hill, in Jerusalem, came at length to be spoken of as a place which the Lord had chosen for himself, where he would dwell, his habitation, his tabernacle, where the people appeared every one of them before him; and so it came to signify, virtually, what we now call a church, or the place where God was wont to draw near to men by special manifestations of himself, and where the people were wont to draw specially near to him in worship and service; thus answering to what, in our day, is called a house of worship, the meeting house, or sanctuary. Hence, as the Lord took a special delight in the gates of Zion in the days of old at Jerusalem, so in the church of our fathers, with all it involved or symbolized, and in every true, christian church of to-day, must we believe he takes a...
