RED WHEEL/WEISER, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 173 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In her newest collection of essays, Barnhouse (Waking Up The Karma Fairy) writes about everyday events, rendering them spiritual. At Big Bill s U-Store, an auction of rummage items prompts Barnhouse to dream up an emotional baggage sale: Sweating strangers stand over piles of other people s sorrows and pain, along with my old resentments, worn stories of betrayal and missed chances. I pictured walking away from a pile of that baggage, leaving it there on the hot asphalt. Drawing from both her personal experience and her insights as a minister and therapist, Barnhouse urges readers to let go of regrets and stress about the future and to surrender to circumstance during times of conflict. Her motto: Don t just do something, stand there. Barnhouse s humorous and hopeful message is that faith in family, friends, and one s self, rather than sudden actions, provides the guidance necessary to weather life s problems and personal struggles.
