WestBow Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Pastor Elle is finally planning her wedding to the man of her dreams--who has been in her life for eight years; he finally popped the question. Her wedding is fraught with blunders and calamities as are many well-planned weddings. Life normalizes until she becomes pregnant and has their son. Post-partum depression interferes with her ministry, which up to this point has been an over-achieving success. In the midst of life and ministry, she fights to defend the rights of the abused women she meets. A major tragedy occurs which changes her life forever. How will she maneuver through life and service? Find out as you laugh and cry along with Pastor Elle. Another story of Pastor Elle encountering the challenges of balancing life in the world of multiple needs both personally and professionally. She experiences life where she helps others as she accepts help from others. It is a fictional story that holds valuable truths about living for all of us. You will enjoy reading about Elle s adventures and you will find yourself wondering about your own life experiences. --Rev. Dr. Cindy Reynolds, Assistant to the Bishop of Indiana United Methodist Conference.
