Steps of Pain, Steps of Hope: Reflections on the Way of the Cross

By Dickens, Matthew

Saint Albert's Press, Faversham, 2012. Soft Cover. Book Condition: New. Kelly, Anne (illustrator). First Edition. The Stations of the Cross help us follow Jesus through his passion, death and resurrection. In this series of fresh meditations, Monsignor Matthew Dickens helps Christians to retrace Jesus' "steps of pain and steps of hope", encouraging them on the journey through life. Jesus' journey to the Crucifixion and beyond it into the Resurrection reveals that the Christian hope is not an empty dream. The risen Lord will lead us to his Kingdom, however frail our faith may be and however heavily our sins may weigh us down. These beautiful meditations, rooted in Scripture and the experience of daily living, will be a source of inspiration to all who want to follow Jesus through the cross to new life. This 40 -page book is beautifully illustrated by artist Anne Kelly. Monsignor Matthew Dickens served as assistant and parish priest in several parishes in South London and Kent before being appointed Vicar General and Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Southwark in 2009. This is his first publication, printed by Saint Albert's Press (the British Province of Carmelites). 'It is very helpful to read fresh reflections which...
