Edward Wade, of Ohio, in the House of Representatives, May 27, 1854 The House being in the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union - Mr. Wade said: Mr. Chairman: The bill under consideration has given rise to much discussion, in which certain Southern gentlemen, particularly the gentleman from Kentucky, [Mr. Preston,] and the gentleman from Alabama, [Mr. Phillips,] have kindly volunteered to advise the few Independent Democrats in Congress that no Abolitionist had yet been so fortunate as to be entitled to the rank of statesman. This bill I suppose, must be considered as owing its paternity and nursing, to gentlemen now in Congress, who, if their own claims shall be allowed, will of course be installed as statesmen. Well sir, this bit of modern statesmanship, proposes to set aside the whole course of territorial legislation practiced for sixty years - from the very organization of the Government - legislation devised by the framers of the Constitution, the very fathers of the Republic, under which, free Governments have been organized for at least nine Territories, viz: Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin. Iowa, Minnesota, Oregon, and Washington, of which six have already become members of the Union; and in the working of which territorial system, I boldly defy these reckless innovators, to show a single act of hardship or injustice. Yes sir, this long-tried and faultless system, under which there have been nurtured and reared to political manhood, six free States, in which a degree of prosperity, happiness, and progress, has been realized without a parallel in the history of the human race, is...
