Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Every day, millions of people struggle with the doubts associated with hoped for benefits of reciprocated trust and the negative feelings and consequences of violated trust. The dynamics of trust are simple yet essentially not discussed among the people who need to know how it works and what happens when it doesn't work. The audience includes women especially young women, high school and college students plus relationship counseling professionals. Our society demonstrates on a daily basis that the dynamics of trust are not commonly understood nor managed very well. Because of this, the book should resonate in the marketplace. People will buy this little book because it stresses the reality of the potential harm Vs potential benefit of trusting another person in simple to understand language and because these are crucial to the question: Should I Trust You? Book is based on doctoral research and years of experience across a wide spectrum of interpersonal trust. Author has PhD in psychology; doctoral dissertation developed, validated and tested the first behavioral model of interpersonal trust. Experience includes twenty years of organization development consultant, trainer and facilitator of human relations interventions. Previous book: Facilitators Guide to interpersonal Trust. Book uses a question and answer format so readers can locate the specific information that is of interest. It includes nine chapters: Interpersonal Trust, Building or Destroying Trust, Self-Trust, Trust within a Friendship, Trust in Marriage or Civil Union, Trust within the Family, Trust in Schools, Trust in the Work Setting, Trusting Strangers. The book includes a reader self-assessment questionnaire with which the reader identifies her/his propensity to build or hamper trust. Specific behaviors to improve trust are provided. Human relations professionals...
